

Moral Distress In Healthcare Providers

Offered two different times on the following dates:

Monday, March 22, 2010 at 7:30-9:00am (morning)

Monday, March 29, 2010 at 7:30-9:00pm (evening)

What is the relationship between moral dilemma, moral distress, depression and burnout?

How do these manifest in healthcare settings?

What are effective preventative strategies and interventions?

Location: Henry Hood Center for Health Research, Intermediate Conference Room #4

Instructor: Chaplain Karl A. Pölm-Faudré, PhD
Director of Education, Research and Outreach, Division of Spiritual Care,
Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, PA 17822

Workshop Material: Handout materials will be provided for each registered participant, including journal articles, definitions and didactic sheets.

Registration: Limited Enrollment. Reservation absolutely required.
To register, call Tina or the voice mail at 570-271-3700 and leave the workshop title, your name, contact phone number and email address in a slow, clear voice.